

1 DAY LEGAL-BASED JAIL TRAINING

HOT LEGAL ISSUES & SUPERVISORY LIABILITY

★ March 19 or 20, 2020 ★

This 1-day seminar will be offered on March 19, 2020 or March 20, 2020. The training, hosted and paid for by the Uinta County Sheriff's Office, will provide an overview of the hottest legal issues facing correctional professionals as well as a comprehensive discussion of all aspects of risk management and civil liability protection. Attendees will also be provided with a systematic plan of action to counter and diminish vulnerability to prisoner litigation.

Topics to be addressed include:

- Legal Liability
- Intake Issues: Intoxication/Withdrawals, Screening
- Medical and Corrections Interface
- Use of Force
- PREA (Legal-based Perspective)
- Cell Searches and Shakedowns

SEMINAR INSTRUCTORS

Tate McCotter is the Executive Director for the National Institute for Jail Operations (NIJO). McCotter has assisted with and coordinated the development, advisement and implementation of legal-based guidelines, standards, training initiatives and corresponding inspection and accreditation programs for jails and prisons across the U.S. He has presented and trained on legal-based standards, policy and procedure development, creating constitutionally safe jails and prisons, PREA, and auditing and inspection programs at numerous conferences, state sheriff association meetings, state jail administration seminars and other training venues for correctional staff and administrators. He also serves as the Executive Director for Accreditation, Audit & Risk Management Security (AARMS) and Chief Editor of the National Institute for Jail Operations website.

Troy Dial, MPA, has over three decades of experience in the corrections field working in all levels of operations and management. He served as the Division Administrator at the Salt Lake County Sheriff's Office, overseeing all jail medical operations. He later managed correctional health care contracted services for the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office in Florida overseeing a 4200 bed, multi-site medical contract. During the last five years, he served as the Director of Medical Operations for Management & Training Corporation, working with multiple full-service correctional medical operations located throughout the U.S.

HOST AGENCY:

Uinta County Sheriff's Office

TRAINING LOCATION

Bear Center Pavilion

75 Bear River Drive

Evanston, WY 82930

All Attendee Fees
Generously Paid for by Summit Food Services

REGISTER
NOW

REGISTER FREE ONLINE:

<https://jailtraining.regfox.com/uinta-wy-mar-2020>